HOME CARE COMPANY VOTED A TOP 25 WORKPLACE FOR WOMEN IN AZ

(March 9, 2011 – Casa Grande, Arizona)

At Home Solutions, a company that provides non-medical in-home services for seniors and persons with disabilities, was recently voted a top 25 workplace for women by az magazine and BestCompanies AZ. Organizations were selected by an independent panel of judges comprised of Arizona business experts. Applicants were judged on benefits, company culture, number of women in the workforce, management positions, and on boards. The full article can be found in the March 2011 issue of az magazine.

Founded by Kim McCreery in 2001, At Home Solutions provides a variety of services including companionship, personal care, housekeeping, meal preparation, shopping and errands, mobility assistance, and respite care. As a result of their extensive caregiver training program, hands-on care coordination, and guarantee of staffing, At Home Solutions has developed a reputation for having the highest standards of care and always placing the client first.
